

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 16, 2005

Contact: David Carson
Community Development Manager
Area Agency on Aging
(561) 684-5885

Officials of Health & Human Services and Administration on Aging to visit Palm Beach County Monday, June 20

West Palm Beach, FL - On Monday, June 20th, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) Secretary Mike Leavitt will host a "Medicare Covers America" rally at the Mae Volen Senior Center in Boca Raton. Administration on Aging (AoA) Assistant Secretary for Aging, Josefina G. Carbonell has also been invited to attend.

The grassroots outreach effort is to educate people about Medicare's new prescription drug coverage benefit that will take effect on January 1, 2006. The Area Agency on Aging of Palm Beach and the Treasure Coast and the Mae Volen Senior Center invite members of the public to attend this Town Hall style event that aims to give people with Medicare good information and good advice about the impending changes.

The Mae Volen Senior Center is located at 1515 West Palmetto Park Road, Boca Raton, FL 33486. The event will take place in the senior center auditorium beginning at 3:00 p.m.

END